

Other Area Parks

J.C. Britton Park, is the cornerstone of Clarendon County's parks system. This 15 acre sports complex is a popular complex for hosting national, regional, state and local baseball and softball tournaments.

Thousands flock to the park year-round to enjoy its picnic shelters, playgrounds, and athletic fields as well as the park's youth and adult programs. The park's walking paths are also popular.

Clarendon County is also home to two additional parks: Taw Caw Park in Summerton, SC and Walker Gamble Park in New Zion. These parks feature additional softball and baseball fields for tournaments as well as for Clarendon County youth sports programs. Our parks may be the perfect location for your next family reunion, your child's birthday party, a casual company meeting, or your next church social. The picnic shelters are great for entertaining or an afternoon of fun.

The Clarendon Community Center hosts recreational basketball games and various indoor class and activities including fitness/weight training classes, and more.

Manning, Summerton and Turbeville offer visitors a variety of shops and boutiques as well as restaurants, food establishments and hotels.

The beautiful serene shores of Lake Marion are only a short distance away enticing visitors with an abundance of activities for the entire family.

Welcome to Clarendon County a fantastic place to visit and a wonderful place to live and raise a family.
